

Daphne Yang

Curriculum Vitae

daphney@usc.edu · LinkedIn

EDUCATION

- Ph.D. University of Southern California (2027)
FIELDS: International Relations; Methods; Gender Politics and Theory
DISSERTATION: “How Conscription and Economic Uncertainty Shape Gender Politics in East Asia”
- M.A. University of Southern California: Political Science (2024)
PROSPECTUS DEFENDED: October 2025
QUALIFYING EXAMINATION PASSED: October 2024
- M.Ed. National University: Education with Critical Thinking concentration (2022)
CERTIFICATIONS: California Teaching Credentialed Educator
- B.A. Pomona College: International Relations with Economics minor (2020)
AWARDS: Cum Laude; Cordell Hull Prize in International Relations; The Korea Times
13th Economic Essay Contest, Grand Prize

PAPERS UNDER REVIEW

- Yang, Daphne. “What Explains East Asia’s Fertility Crisis? The Effect of Gender Norms and Attitudes on Birth Rate Decline in South Korea.” Under review.
- Yang, Daphne and Saori N. Katada. “The Need for De-securitization: Analyzing Taiwan’s Semiconductor Industry Development.” Under review for an edited volume at Cambridge University Press and for a special issue at International Studies Quarterly.

WORKING PAPERS

- “Mobilizing the Male Vote: The Effect of Conscription and Economic Uncertainty on Gender Politics in South Korea” (Dissertation chapter).
- “How Reddit Radicalizes: A Network Analysis of Incel Culture Cultivation on Social Media” (with Lisa Basil).

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Southern California

Teaching Assistant

IR212: Historical Approaches to International Relations (Spring 2025, Fall 2025)

IR210: Introduction to International Relations (Spring 2026)

University of Southern California

Grader

IR362: International Relations of the Middle East (Spring 2024)

POSC325: State Politics (Spring 2024)

Cesar Chavez Ravenswood Middle School

7th Grade ELA/Social Studies Teacher (2020-2022)

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Professor Christian Dyogi Phillips

Research Assistant: Analyzing survey experiment data for a project on gender/marriage attitudes and migration in South Korea (Summer 2026)

Professor Saori N. Katada

Research Assistant: Edited and participated in finalizing now-published OUP book:
Japan's Grand Strategy: Power and Challenge of Liminal Power (Fall and Winter 2024)

Professor Patrick James

Research Assistant: Graduate supervisor on the Near Crisis Project (Summer and Fall 2023)

RESEARCH GRANTS

2026	Sherwin Family Advanced Graduate Student Support Fund ($5000)
2025	Willard and Betty Beling Scholarship ($4000)
2025	Korean Studies Institute Graduate Summer Fieldwork Grant ($1000)
2024, 2023	POIR Research and Development Fund ($3000)

CONFERENCE INVITATIONS

2026	APSA (accepted): Paper Panel – Young People and Politics “How Military Conscription and Economic Uncertainty Shape Gender Politics in South Korea”
2026	APSA (accepted): Bringing The Sector Back In (BSBI) Roundtable “The Need for De-securitization: Analyzing Taiwan’s Semiconductor Industry Development”
2025	APSA: Paper Panel – Navigating Economic Security in East Asia “The Need for De-securitization: Analyzing Taiwan’s Semiconductor Industry Development”
2025	APSA: Discussant – Politics and Gender in East Asia
2025	IPSA: Paper Panel – Gender Dynamics in Polarized Societies “What Explains East Asia’s Fertility Crisis? The Effect of Gender Norms and Attitudes on Birth Rate Decline in South Korea”
2025	USC Gender Politics in East Asia Conference: Paper Panel – Young Scholars Research “What Explains East Asia’s Fertility Crisis? The Effect of Gender Norms and Attitudes on Birth Rate Decline in South Korea”

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE & SERVICE

Teach for America

Corps Member (June 2020 - June 2022)

Stanford University School of Engineering

Program Assistant for Global Engineering Programs (Summer 2022-2024)

PUBLIC SCHOLARSHIP

Le, Tom and Daphne Yang. “Repeating Past Mistakes in Japan-Korea Reconciliation” (2020). Tokyo Review.

Yang, Daphne. “A Shrimp Swimming Beyond the Whales: South Korea’s Shifting Regional Perspective” (2019). Diplomatic Courier.

Yang, Daphne. “Why Young South Koreans Don’t Want Reunification Anymore” (2018). International Policy Digest.

RESEARCH AND TEACHING AREAS

Substantive

Gender Politics & Theory
International Political Economy
International Relations Theory
East Asian Politics & Development
Demographics & Politics

Methodological

Research Design
Quantitative and Linear Methods
Survey Methodology and Experiments
Process Tracing
Interviews

ADDITIONAL SKILLS AND TRAINING

Mandarin Chinese (bilingual), Korean (proficient), French (intermediate)
R/RStudio, Stata, L^AT_EX, Qualtrics

REFERENCES

Saori N. Katada

Louis G. Lancaster Chair of International Relations
Department of Political Science
University of Santa Barbara skatada@usc.edu

Jacques C. Hymans

Professor
Department of International Relations
Hiroshima Peace Institute
hymans@usc.edu

Christian Dyogi Phillips

Associate Professor
Department of Political Science and International Relations
University of Southern California
cdphilli@usc.edu

Daniela Urbina Julio

Assistant Professor
Department of Sociology
University of Southern California
urbinaju@usc.edu